Mammoli of purple potatoes Vitelotte

The Vitelotte potato is an irregularly-shaped potato that grows best in coarse, difficult soils. It has grey-brown skin with golden blotches, and gives an especially pretty blossom. Prettier still is the flesh: ranging in colour from lilac to deep purple, it has a delicate and unique flavour that's redolent of chestnut. And it adds a surprising touch of colour to the dishes it's used in. In our Mammoli we use only Vitelotte potatoes that are individually peeled and processed in our kitchens. The exclusive format we've created for our Mammoli is reminiscent of the shape of hand-made gnocchi cut by knife.
